

Beverly London, DVM
2039 Arbor Meadows Dr.
DeWitt, MI 48820
517-230-8775
eq_doclondon@gmail.com

"...exceptionally knowledgeable and proficient in teaching how the whole body works together for optimal health..."

Virginia Cluley
dog owner and client

*"...when no other doctor could figure out what was going on with my dog,
Dr. London had it diagnosed in a matter of minutes..."*

Ken Ash
dog owner and client

*Dr. London was able to demonstrate other novel chiropractic adjustments
not previously taught.*

Dr. Hall
Attendee of AVCA conference

Professional Profile

Eager to introduce animal owners into the fascinating field of holistic veterinary medicine using a unique combination of educational experiences coupled with thirteen years of veterinary expertise in small animal and equine holistic veterinary medicine.

- Hold Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Degree and Bachelor's Degree in Animal Science with an emphasis in animal nutrition.
- Certified in animal chiropractic and acupuncture.
- Dedicated to enthusiastic and dynamic teaching of holistic veterinary medicine as a means of nurturing a lifelong love of animals and medicine.

Education, Honors, and Certifications

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine 1994
Iowa State College of Veterinary Medicine, Ames, IA

Bachelor of Science-Animal Science 1989
Iowa State University, Ames, IA

Board Certification in Animal Chiropractic
Options for Animals, Port Byron, IL 2000

Board Certification in Veterinary Acupuncture
Chi Institute, Reddick, FL 2002

Selected for Clinical Pathology residency position, 1996

Veterinary Experience

Private holistic practice, Sole Practitioner 2000-current
London Veterinary Energy Medicine, DeWitt, MI

- Animal chiropractic
- Acupuncture
- Nutritional therapy and counseling
- Homeopathy
- Applied kinesiology
- Radionics analysis
- Alternative cancer therapy
- Teach veterinary students during externships

Veterinary Nutrition Technical Support 1997-2000

- Archer Daniels Midland, Portland, MI
- Responsible for teaching sales reps equine nutrition.
- Presentation of equine nutritional education to horse owners.
- Equine nutrition marketing and advertising.
- Presentation of equine nutrition and nutritional related diseases to other veterinarians.

"I did not believe that I should have to spend 30 hours with a board certified instructor in order to become board certified myself. After 2 days of learning from Dr. London, I couldn't wait to learn more.

Pam Graves, DVM

Neuropathology 1996-1997

Michigan State University Dept. of Human Neuropathology, E. Lansing, MI

- Veterinary care of a goat herd used for research purposes of human neuropathological diseases.
- Performed weekly reproductive ultrasounds.
- Semen collection and insemination.
- Organized and assisted on in-utero surgeries.
- Performed necropsies.
- Performed various lab assays and analysis.
- Co-author of grant proposals for NIH funding of research project.
- Co-author of journal publications.

Private Practice Veterinarian 1994

Des Moines, IA

National Animal Disease Center 1991-1994

Veterinary Researcher

Speaking engagements and publications

AHVMA annual conference 2013

Holistic Treatment of Equine Gastric Ulcers

Complete Recovery of Equine Osteochondrosis Dissecans without Surgical Intervention

Heavy Metal Toxicity Causing Chronic Renal Failure in a Horse

AVCA annual conference 2009

Why Joint Manipulations Don't Hold

Purina Equine Education for Horse Owners 2008

Nutrition and Developmental Orthopedic Diseases

Equine Affaire 1999

Equine Parasite Deworming Programs

Co-author of three published papers in neuropathology available upon request.

Professional Affiliations

Member, American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA)

Member, American Veterinary Chiropractic Association (AVCA)

Member, American Holistic Veterinary Medical Association (AHVMA)

Member, Michigan Equine Practitioners Association (MEPA)